

Incoming 9th grade students can choose between Biology in the Earth System or Honors Biology in the Earth System. We ask that you review the course catalog for additional information in regards to the difference between Biology in the Earth System and Honors Biology in the Earth System. Regardless of which class they take, it does not stop them from taking any advanced level classes in the future.

